Gram Panchayats biggest defaulter with Rs. 24.83 crore

Mysuru, June 30 (GA&DM)- Even as the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) is looking at new means and ways to augment its resources, here is a startling news that many Government Departments collectively owe the MCC Rs. 45,65,26,137 as water bill dues, which include Rs. 24,83,76,256 of Gram Panchayats that come under the purview of the MCC.

According to officials of Vani Vilas Water Works (VVWW), the water supply arm of MCC, unpaid water bills are hindering the civic body's ability to invest in necessary infrastructure upgrades and maintenance. Recovering the outstanding dues is a lengthy process including negotiation, mediation, or even legal action unless the Departments voluntarily pay up.

In the past, the cash-strapped MCC had tried many measures asking consumers and Departments to clear their bills. While a few residents have complied, a major chunk of the Government Departments have refused to comply, the VVWW officials claimed.

Finally FIXED
But who fixed it?!

SOM impact

Mysuru, June 30- The single barricade placed in the middle of the Karanji Lake Bund Road in a linear position for over a year creating a traffic hazard has been removed and the manhole fixed.

Star of Mysore had published a news item titled 'ACCIDENT SPOT: Barricade in the middle of Karanji Lake Bund Road' on June 18 and had highlighted the frequent accidents taking place because of it.

SOM had also spoken with MCC Superintending Engineer Mahesh, who had assured that the road would be restored soon. Now the problem has been fixed but curiously nobody knows who fixed this problem!

Whodunit?

When SOM called Mahesh to thank MCC for repairing the road we were told that they did not do it. Same kind of reply was received by SOM when we called PWD Executive Engineer Raju! All the same SOM thanks who ever has made this road safe again. We wonder if it was done by a Good Samaritan with the permission from MCC in whose jurisdiction this road lies.

Addressing a press meet here recently, Vasu, who is also the President of city-based H.C. Dasappa Institute of Public Affairs, said that it is necessary to educate the youth of today on the life and achievements of H.C. Dasappa and Yashodharamma, who were clean and honest politicians.

The programme is taking place at Yashodharapura near Hunsur town, which is jointly organised by H.C. Dasappa Institute of Public Affairs, NSS, Vidyavardhaka Law College, Mysuru District Legal Services Authority, Seshadripuram Degree College and Karnataka Gandhi Smaraka Nidhi.

The week-long programme features service activities, lecture series and other programmes.

The valedictory will take place at 11 am on July 7 with Higher Education Council Vice-President Dr. Y.S. Siddegowda delivering the valedictory address.

Former Mayor P. Vishwanath and Prof. Shivaraj were present at the press meet.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Whose mind doesn't play tricks on them, whether they're old or young? 'Imagination is larger than life' at times, seems such a true saying. Many may remember from childhood, the adult threat of the 'Bogeyman', who'd take us away should we get upto mischief. In today's thinking this I guess would be classified as 'child abuse', but way back then, we soon came to know no such person existed, though it could've caused us to curb misbehaviour. Irrational issues of fear, anxiety, worry at mistakes, exam results fever, career choices or marital ones and so much else can trouble immensely, if we don't tackle the bogey sensibly and banish it! Health concerns can be blown out of proportion when we find something minutely wrong. Superstitions and suppositions often rule our decisions, yet in this modern mixed up world, it would be wise to not allow them a space.

Often we get confused by the information available on the internet, details of remedies and possible side effects as well, that we resort to self diagnosis and treatment, instead of just visiting a doctor to sort us out. Sadly, the good old family doctor, who'd be knowledgeable in general practice of medicine as well as an expert in deciphering the mental make up of a patient, is rare in these times of super specialisation that leads one to seek advice from multiple sources. Such endeavours could end up multiplying our bogeys instead of eliminating them, with replies like, 'nothing to worry about' or the other extreme of conflicting diagnoses. Many times, we ourselves stir up a storm of gut reaction to letting our thoughts and conclusions run riot, due to listening to other people's experiences that resemble our own, leading us to thoughtlessly follow their direction, their advice, whose effects are indeterminable and could be detrimental.

Throughout our lives, each day will throw up a challenge of one type of the other, which we must accept and learn to cope with. Distinguish the reality from the bogey. Deal discerningly with the former and banish the latter!

Pilots fly to 48 States in under 48 hours

Michigan: A pair of pilots and a repair technician took a six-seat plane for a flight and successfully landed in 48 states in under 48 hours.

Delta A350 Capt. Barry Behnfeldt said he was inspired by another pilot's Guinness World Record (GWR) attempt to make his own attempt at visiting 48 states in 48 hours.

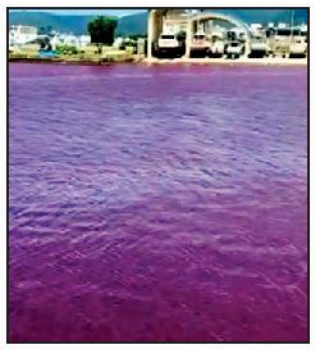
He enlisted Delta A321 Capt. Aaron Wilson to be his co-pilot and Thomas Twiddy, who served with Behnfeldt in the Navy, to be their in-flight repair technician.

The trio took off in a six-seat 1980 PA32R Piper Saratoga in Michigan and landed at one airport in each of the 48 contiguous States, finishing in Maine.

The team finished their journey with a time of 44 hours and 7 minutes, beating their goal of 48 hours. They celebrated the end of their journey by spelling out "48N48" in the sky.

The team said they are now seeking a Guinness World Record for their accomplishment.

River in Japan turns blood red



Tokyo: A food colouring leak in a port in Japan left a flowing river blood red in colour, pictures of which have surfaced on the internet. The river in Nago City, Japan's Okinawa, was seen turning into a deep crimson colour, alarming locals and visitors.

According to a report, the leak reportedly started in one of the cooling systems of the brewery which likely occurred on Tuesday. It was stopped at around 9.30 am local time, according to Japanese media reports.

Orion Breweries, a brewery, later apologised for "causing enormous trouble and worry" in a statement. They said a food colouring dye that had leaked into a river had caused the port to turn colour, adding that it posed no health risks.

Drunkards' menace

Sir,

This is to bring to notice of the authorities concerned about the drunkards menace at Kuvempunagar, right next to Kuvempu Jnana Thana on Vishwamanava Double Road (near A2Z supermarket), by the dusk.

This spot is becoming a safe haven for drunkards to have drinks in the open in their cars or two-wheelers, after which they discard the empty bottles and half-eaten food packets (see pics above).

This place is loved by elders/family members for an evening stroll and relaxing on those rock benches. Also, the morning joggers/walkers are welcomed by the discarded (sometimes broken) bottles and food packets, which is an eyesore.

It is very disheartening that such illegal activities are happening right next to Kuvempu Statue. I urge the Police to take strict action on the offenders and avoid such illegal activities

Srirama Park, an eyesore at Goddess Saraswathi's Puram

Mysuru, June 30 (CN&DM)- Heaps of waste, mounds of mud, fallen tree branches left uncleared, an insecure gate, foul-smelling toilets, inadequate lighting and poor hygiene — these are some of the unpleasant sights that greet visitors at the 'Srirama' Park, situated between 5th Main Road and 2nd Cross in Saraswathipuram, falling under MCC Ward 21.

Previously, the efforts of the former Chamaraja MLA L. Nagendra to secure Rs.50 lakh for park development did not yield significant results. The park continues to suffer from neglect, including poor maintenance and accumulation of waste, indicating negligence on the part of the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) authorities.

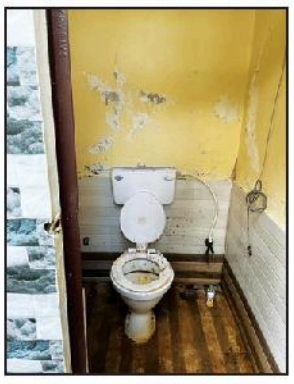
Located in a prominent area of Saraswathipuram, the park features a library. Unfortunately, the stench emanating from the park's toilets deters visitors from exploring the area. However, the library serves as a valuable resource for nearby college students who frequent it to update their knowledge.

Regrettably, the park lacks a drinking water facility, disappointing walkers and other visitors. Adding to their woes is a large pile of uncleared waste. Many residents around the park complain that it has become a haven for illegal and immoral activities, evident from the presence of liquor bottles, plastic food packets, and other debris scattered throughout the park.

Despite its ample inner space, visitors avoid utilising it due to unhygienic conditions.

The park boasts children's play facilities, but due to poor maintenance, many of them have fallen into disuse, disappointing the children.

Numerous complaints regarding the park's dismal state have been lodged with the MCC authorities by visitors and nearby residents, but no action has been taken to address the issues. Frustrated with the lethargic response from the MCC, park users have warned that they may stage a protest.



Residents peeved as a good park is neglected

Anantaraju Surya, an AAP leader, expressed dissatisfaction with the slow progress in beautifying the park since development work began five years ago. He emphasised that complaints have been lodged with the MCC Commissioner and other authorities but in vain.

B.C. Vikas, an aspirant for Civil Services, highlighted the park's importance as a library frequented by students and competitive exam candidates. He pointed out the lack of drinking water and toilet facilities, urging the authorities to address these issues and appoint a permanent watchman to ensure round-the-clock security in the park.

Jhansi, a local resident, identified park's lack of hygiene as the most significant problem. She felt the need for user-friendly toilets, particularly for women who face more inconvenience due to poorly maintained facilities. She appealed to the authorities to expedite the ongoing works and make the park more useful to its visitors.

Corporator blames officials

Reacting to the filthy nature of the park, MCC Ward 21 Corporator C. Vedavathi said that over Rs. 42 lakh has been allocated for the park development including the construction of an interlock, gazebo and landscaping.

"The works got delayed due to sprinkler system work. However, the landscaping work has now commenced. A separate committee will be formed for the park's maintenance. Regarding stinking toilets, I have repeatedly asked officers and engineers but they have not responded properly. It has been decided to outsource the management of the rest rooms," she said.

C. Vedavathi

"Due to the constant change in officials, the progress of the landscaping work has been affected. After making several requests, the Mayor has consented the fund allocation," Vedavathi added.

MCC Zone-4 Engineer Siddaramegowda explained that previously, Rs.1 crore was allocated for park development, including the construction of a roundabout and a road in the vicinity.

Out of this amount, Rs. 50 lakh has been utilised for the construction of a circle and the road from JSS educational institutions to Kukkarahalli Lake.

The remaining Rs.50 lakh is being used for the development of Srirama Park, encompassing the laying of interlocking tiles, construction of a Mantapa, installation of sprinklers and establishment of a grass lawn. He added that all the work will be completed within a month.

KRS and Kabini reservoirs reaching dead storage level

Drinking water crisis looms large

A shepherd seen tending his flock at the dried up portion of KRS Reservoir. [Pic. by M.N. Lakshminarayana Yadav]

Mysuru, June 30 (BLU&DM)- With monsoon playing truant, the water levels in KRS and Kabini Reservoirs are dipping at an alarming rate, thus posing a threat even to the drinking water needs of Mysuru and surrounding districts of Cauvery basin.

As on Thursday, the water-levels in both the dams were just short of reaching the dead storage level as the arrival of monsoon is getting longer. The low level of water in the two major dams may severely disrupt water supplies to Mysuru, Bengaluru and other cities of the Cauvery basin.

In the past several years, the monsoon used to normally arrive in the first week of June on a full-scale with Kodagu getting copious rainfall and as a result, the KRS and Kabini Dams used to get heavy water inflows from catchment areas, by the end of June itself. But now, there is no clear picture on the arrival of monsoon and Kodagu district, the catchment area for KRS Dam is yet to receive monsoon showers. Similar is the case of Kabini Dam, which get its water from Wayanad in Kerala, which is also awaiting monsoon just as Kodagu.

The maximum water level of KRS Dam is 124.80 ft. and the level today stood at 78.02 ft. The dead storage level of the dam is 60 ft. and only 17 ft. remains for the dam to reach its dead storage level. The inflow to the Dam today is 671 cusecs and the total outflow is 309 cusecs.

The situation at Kabini Dam is no different.

The water-level in Kabini Dam today stood at 2,251.26 ft. as against the maximum level of 2,284 ft. The dam is just 29 ft. short of reaching the dead storage level of 2,221 ft. The inflow recorded today is 1,266 cusecs, while the outflow is 300 cusecs.

At present, the 17 ft. water in KRS Dam and 29.ft water in Kabini Dam is said to be enough for drinking water needs of Mysuru for just about 25 days. But if the monsoon gets delayed further, then the city may surely be staring at a water crisis, lest the authorities do something for meeting the drinking water needs of the city after a month.

Meanwhile, MCC Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy said that a decision will be taken in the coming days if Cauvery River catchment areas do not get copious rainfall and the water level in KRS dam dips further.

Asserting that there is no crisis as of now, he appealed the people for judicious use of water.

Fort wall of Mysore Palace restored

Mysuru, June 30 (GA&BS)- The restoration works of the part of the fort wall of Mysore Palace has been completed. Following copious rainfall in the city last year, seven foot tall fort wall to the left of Kote Maramma Temple towards Varaha Gate had collapsed 20 metre wide on Oct. 18, 2022. The restoration works were launched on Oct. 25 and have been completed recently.

Taking into cognisance the heritage significance of the structure, Mysore Palace Board had called for an e-tender for the repair works. The dilapidated condition of fort wall had been identified in three places, totalling 50 metres length and the tender had been invited at an estimated cost of Rs. 39.6 lakh. The wall is restored using the construction materials like lime, mortar and stone to redo the structure.

The 25 ft. tall fort around the Palace was built for the safety and security during the princely rule. However, owing to lack of maintenance the structure has turned weak at places. Even when the part of the fort wall caved in, heritage lovers in the city had expressed grave concern, with several such structures in various parts of the city standing in pathetic condition waiting for the attention of authorities concerned.

MG Road Traffic Chaos

Vegetable market stretch a bane for motorists & ambulances

Administration has NO Solution?

Mysuru, June 30- Motorists are finding it difficult to traverse on the stretch of M.G. Road after Radisson Blu Plaza Hotel till the under-bridge as goods vehicles bringing vegetables, fruits and greens from various places park the vehicles on the road haphazardly.

Every day in the morning from 6 to 11, office goers, autos carrying school children and those hurrying during emergencies are finding it difficult to reach their destinations on time due to traffic hazards caused by goods vehicles parked in a haphazard manner and even buyers parking their vehicles on the road during rush hours.

Again from 6 pm to 1 am, the same situation arises with more number of vehicles including tourists vehicles and buses getting stranded on this stretch of the road.

Ambulances from nearby JSS Hospital are stranded here for long hours.

"It is hardly a kilometre from Radisson Hotel to JSS Hospital, but vehicles sometimes take nearly 20 to 30 minutes to pass this stretch as vehicles have to navigate goods autos, vegetable shoppers, cows and tea vendors," a motorist, who travels daily on this stretch said.

"Sometimes we have to shift to the opposite lane because our lane is completely blocked for unloading of vegetables," he added.

More importantly this road connects to JSS Hospital and many times ambulances are stuck in this chaotic patch causing patient's to lose precious life-saving time.

What Govt. must do to solve the problem?

Since law of the land provides for acquiring private land if required for a public purpose, the best way to solve this problem, now stuck in a Law Court, is to settle the case by compromise or by requesting the Court for urgent hearing in the public interest. If the private party (who bought this land in IT Department auction) wins the case, the government must acquire this land by paying compensation as per law.

Here, one cannot blame the farmers, who bring vegetables, fruits and greens from far places, because it takes time for them to unload their produce and in the absence of dedicated space for them to unload, the goods vehicles in which they bring their produce stop on the road till the unloading is over.

This problem has been going on ever since the vegetable market was shifted to this location a few years ago.

Though the chaotic traffic situation on this road is known to officials of various Departments, no action has been taken. The Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) and the Police Department should have found a solution to this issue. But officials of the civic body and the Police Department have turned a blind eye toward it resulting in common man suffering.

This small patch of wholesale market is part of the 145 acre 13 gunta land belonging to the Karnataka Exhibition Authority.

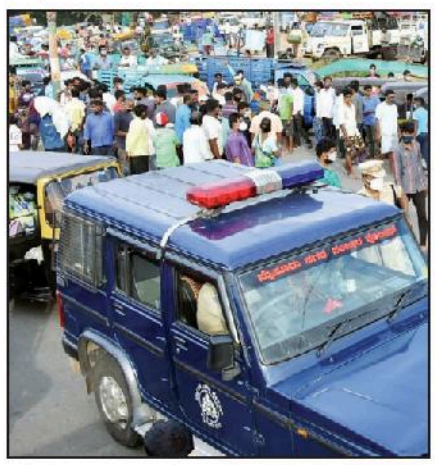
This patch of land was donated by the erstwhile Mysore rulers for public purpose in the year 1950. But the market land was auctioned by the Income Tax Department a few years ago and it was bought by a private party, who in turn sold it to another person.

The person, who had bought the land moved the Supreme Court, when the then Deputy Commissioner P. Manivannan, who was also in-charge of Mysore Urban Development Authority (MUDA), with the intention of providing shelter to the vegetable vendors had initiated construction of zinc sheet shelters.

MUDA had also sanctioned Rs. 25 lakh for construction of the shelters, of which Rs. 20 lakh was utilised. The pending works included provision of toilets, drinking water facility and a trench. However, with the Court orders that the status quo of the property be maintained with regard to its nature, title and position, the construction works were stopped.

Even the vegetable traders had refused to move inside the market stating that customers do not come inside to purchase vegetables and began conducting business on the roadside which has now caused extreme traffic problems.

Will the MCC either force the vegetable vendors to move their business away from the road to the designated area or can they provide an alternate land where farmers can unload their produce without hindering traffic and causing inconvenience to the larger population is to be seen.



For now, the Traffic Police in good strength must monitor traffic here from morning 6 to 11 and evening from 6 to 1 am.

Water dues

MCC has even warned consumers of disconnecting their water supply and UGD connection.

In 2021, the dues from the offices of Government Departments accounted for Rs. 60 crore and now it stands at Rs. 45.65 crore. In 2022, the water dues amounted to Rs. 55,73,10,966.

The Government Departments defaulting on water bills is creating a challenging situation for the MCC, impacting its financial stability, service quality and ability to invest in infrastructure.

The second biggest defaulter is Police Dept. which owes a total of Rs.6,79,55,554, followed by other Departments. This apart, Commercial Taxes, Fisheries, KSRTC, KMF, ZP, Water Resources, Forest, Industries, Mysore Race Club, etc., too owe water bills to MCC, which collectively stands at Rs. 45.65 crore as at the end of May 2023.

Rise in accidents on Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway

ADGP Alok Kumar inspects 'black spots' in Mandya district

Mandya, June 30 (Mohanraj &BS)- In the wake of rise in number of accidents on Access Controlled 10 lane Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway, ADGP (Traffic and Road Safety) Alok Kumar inspected several stretches of the Expressway that have turned into black spots near Nidaghatta, Maddur and Gejjalagere in Maddur taluk and Hanakere in Mandya taluk in the district this morning.

The residents of nearby villages who gathered on the arrival of ADGP Kumar, complained about unscientific works resulting in the accumulation of water during rain, with no vent to reach the storm water drain, near Nidaghatta junction on the Expressway, which has also witnessed more number of accidents of late. The underpass which connects several villages in Maddur and Channapatna taluks (Ramanagara district) also has been built without any proper planning, causing severe inconvenience, as the school and college students also board and alight buses at the same spot. The footpath works near the underpass also remain incomplete, though National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) has acquired the land for related works, the villagers complained.

Due to the absence of footpath near the underpass at Nidaghatta, a vehicle veered off the road and ploughed into a hut nearby, but fortunately there was no fatality. The fences should be erected and lights should be installed in the underpass, in the interest of safety of road users, the villagers told ADGP Alok Kumar, besides venting their anguish on NHAI engineers present on the spot.

The ADGP Kumar spoke to NHAI higher-ups over phone and asked them about the reasons behind increasing number of accidents near Ramanagara, Channapatna and Maddur junctions of the Expressway.

The ADGP also inspected the stretch of Expressway in Maddur near KSRTC Bus Stand and Gejjalagere and Hanakere in Mandya taluk, where the accidents were reported in the recent days, before proceeding towards Mandya town, where he had a brief halt.

ADGP Kumar is also expected to visit the Expressway till Ganangur in Srirangapatna taluk, where the new toll plaza will be inaugurated tomorrow.

This was the second inspection visit of the ADGP after conducting the first inspection of the stretch of the Expressway from Kumbalgodu to Ramanagara on June 27, where too he received similar complaints from locals blaming unscientific works.

Mandya Superintendent of Police (SP) N. Yathish, Additional SP Thammaiah, Maddur Circle Police Inspector (CPI) Santosh Kumar, Mandya Traffic Inspector Ayyana Gowda and other Officers were present during the inspection.

To avoid risk on Expressway, motorists take service road

Rise in number of fatal accidents, toll charges on Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway force vehicle users to opt for a safe journey

Mysuru, June 30 (BLU&BS)- As the Access-Controlled 10-lane Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway is turning into a risky experience, not just for the lives, but also for the wallet, travellers have been opting for a safe way on the service road.

Ever since the Expressway was opened in March, there have been a surge in the rate of accidents irrespective of fatal and non-fatal claiming several lives. The recent hike in toll from Bengaluru to Nidaghatta section has been denting the wallet of owners/ drivers of four-wheelers and other types of vehicles, who have been taking the service road only to avoid paying the hefty toll that differs according to the type of vehicles.

Now, the toll is being collected at the Toll Plaza in Kaniminike near Bidadi coming under Bengaluru Urban limits and Sheshagirihalli near Ramanagara on the Expressway. If one has the digital payment method through FASTag, the toll charged for one-way journey is Rs. 165 or have to shell double the amount of Rs. 330 for paying by cash. This tariff is applicable for cars, jeeps and vans, while it exceeds Rs.1,000 for heavy motor vehicles like buses and trucks. Fed up of paying such a huge amount for the toll, some of the vehicle users have been playing smart by driving on the service road.

Barring a few vehicles that pass through the Toll Plaza near Bidadi, there has been a gradual decline in the density of vehicles on the Expressway, turning service road into a busy lane.

If the Toll Booth near Ganangur in Srirangapatna taluk on the Expressway also starts functioning from July 1, those driving towards Bengaluru from Mysuru side also should have to pay Rs. 155 for one-way journey and Rs. 235 for return journey same day.

Now, the entry and exit have been provided from the main carriageway on Expressway to service road at several junctions. Once the Toll Plaza near Srirangapatna starts functioning, it is said that the entry and exit towards service road will be restricted, forcing the people to take Expressway.

But the service road also has advantages and disadvantages. The advantage is for those who prefer to use the road to avoid the hefty toll for using Expressway. The disadvantage is the traffic congestion that will increase in the coming days, with the road being narrow with not much space to hold the vehicles.

As a safety measure, road humps have been built near the underpasses connecting the service road. But, still the threat of accidents looms large with the spurt in traffic, with those travelling to Srirangapatna, Mandya, Maddur, Channapatna, Ramanagara and Maddur still opting for service road, except for those travelling directly to Mysuru and Bengaluru.

KPCC Member to file PIL against Expressway

Satyananda

Mandya, June 30 (BS)-Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee (KPCC) Member T.S. Satyananda has said that he would file a Public Interest Litigation (PIL) in the High Court, alleging unscientific works of the 10-lane Mysuru - Bengaluru Expressway leading to accidents on a daily basis.

Satyananda told media yesterday that, the rate of accidents on the Expressway has increased by 50 percent, with several people losing their lives in hundreds of accidents. The reason is that, the Expressway is built flouting all the norms of Indian Road Congress (IRC), due to the intervention of a few people with vested interests. Though the works are unscientific, National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) is charging the toll according to its whims and fancies. Public using the road should complain to Consumer Forum.

Mysuru, June 30- Puttaiah (Shaneshwara Guddappa), former Mysuru Taluk Panchayat Vice-President and a resident of Keelanapura, passed away following age related ailments at his residence yesterday.

He leaves behind his wife Savithramma, one son, one daughter, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.

Last rites were held at the family's farm land at Keelanapura this afternoon.

Devotees throng Hill temple on second Ashada Friday too

Goddess Chamundeshwari idol decorated with 'Simha Vahini' alankara

Mysuru, June 30 (BLU&DM)- Just like the first Ashada Friday last week, the second Ashada Friday too drew a large number of devotees to Chamundeshwari Hill temple this morning.

Goddess Chamundeshwari was adorned with 'Simha Vahini' alankara (Goddess Chamundeshwari seated on the back of a Lion), which was a visual treat for devotees. Last week, the deity was adorned with 'Nagalakshmi' alankara.

Pujas and rituals atop the Hill temple began as early as 3.30 am and went on for two hours, following which the temple was opened for devotees at 5.30 am.

Devotees who arrived at the Hill top in free KSRTC buses and also by climbing steps, stood in a queue since early morning to have the blessings of the deity on an auspicious day in the Ashada month for Hindus. KSRTC began its operation of free buses from Lalitha Mahal helipad grounds as early as 4 am.

As is the norm for Ashada Fridays, there was no entry for private vehicles and devotees had to take the free KSRTC bus service to reach the Hill temple.

There was direct entry for elderly devotees aged over 65 years and they were allowed through the Rs.50 ticket counter, without having to stand in long queues. The temple authorities had deployed battery operated vehicles atop the Hill for the convenience of senior citizens.

A good number of devotees were seen climbing the Hill steps since early morning

Coimbatore-based Durga agencies sponsored the Anna Dasoha today with morning breakfast (Uppittu, Kesri baath, Pongal and Bonda), lunch (Anna Sambar, Rasam, Palya, Kosambari, Veg Palav, Pakoda and Chitranna) and dinner later this evening.

Police had made elaborate security arrangements.

Third Ashada Friday falls on July 7, Chamundeshwari Vardhanti on July 10, fourth and last Ashada Friday on July 14.

Three killed in separate accidents on Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway

Mandya, June 30- After the accident between a KSRTC electric bus and a plywood laden Bolero vehicle resulting in the death of the bus conductor and 22 people sustaining injuries on June 28, two more separate accidents took place on the Expressway, claiming the lives of three people including a couple.

In the first accident, a couple were killed when the scooter on which they were travelling rammed into a parked truck from behind near Kempnahalli Gate close to Bidadi on Wednesday night.

The deceased have been identified as Sanaulla Baig (65) and his wife Noor Jahan, residents of Bapujinagar in Bengaluru.

The couple, who had come to Ramanagara to attend a programme, was returning to Bengaluru, when Sanaulla, who was riding the scooter rammed into an under-repair truck, which was parked on the roadside resulting in the death of the couple.

It is learnt that the truck had no reflectors and Sanaulla, who did not see the parked truck, rammed into it. A case has been registered at Bidadi Police Station.

In the second incident, a man from Kerala was killed while his father sustained injuries when a truck collided with a Bolero vehicle near Mandya on the Expressway yesterday.

The deceased has been identified as M.V. Jareen and the injured is Verghese. They were proceeding to Kerala from Bengaluru in their Bolero vehicle, when the speeding truck collided with their vehicle from behind. The impact was such that the Bolero vehicle rammed into the road divider killing Jareen and injuring Verghese seriously. Mandya Rural Police have registered a case.

WORD OF THE DAY

Consigliere

Pronunciation: kohn-sil-YEH-reh.
Meaning: Consigliere refers to a trusted adviser or counselor. Originally, a consigliere specifically served the leader of a criminal organisation such as the Mafia, but others likened to such an adviser are now sometimes called consiglieri too.
Origin: If you're a fan of The Godfather series of movies, mention of the word consigliere may already have brought to mind character Tom Hagen. Hagen, Corleones' family lawyer, is famously dismissed by the Don's successor & son Michael Corleone because he is not a "wartime consigliere." The word consigliere comes from Italian and has been a part of English since 17th century; it was originally used of someone who served on a council in Italy. Currently, it most commonly refers to advisers to the Mafia — a use that first appeared in English in a document from a 1963 session of the US Senate.
Example: "'Mafia Mamma' is an action comedy about a flaky American marketing employee and soon-to-be empty nester, Kristin (Toni Collette), who, through the demise of her grandfather, Don Giuseppe Balbano (Alessandro Bressanello), becomes the head of a major Italian crime family. Assisted by Don Giuseppe's consigliere, Bianca (Monica Bellucci), she must take down the Romanos, a rival family, while avoiding her own assassination." —Odie Henderson, The Boston Globe, 14 Apr. 2023.

THE ODD WORD

Caiman

Small alligator-like reptile.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Channel surfing

Meaning: Surfing (a.k.a. surfboarding) is, in its literal meaning, the riding of a wave while standing or lying on a surfboard. The word surfing is now applied figuratively as a prefix or postfix to construct phrases relating to other activities, for example 'surfing the net'.
Origin: It is generally accepted that surfing was first enjoyed by Polynesians in Tahiti and Hawaii. The oral tradition of passing chants, called 'Meles', from generation to generation records the practice of surfing in those islands and suggests that it dates back to at least 15th century. It was first recorded in print in the ship's log of the Discovery, which was part of Captain James Cook's ill-fated expedition to Hawaii. The log was written in 1779 by Lieutenant James King, who took over the captaincy of ship after Cook was killed. Modern-day surfing came to USA in 20th century and became very popular amongst the young, especially in on the west coast, during the 1960s. When the Beach Boys recorded Surfin' USA in March 1963 they could have had no notion that surfing was to become such a widespread term in the language.
